MACARTHUR, 18,150 MEN LAND IN JAPAN

Meandering Along the Main Stem By WASH FAYETTE

Just to prove the warning to motorists that plenty of gasoline and a little too much speed is dangerous, in view of the tire and car conditions at the present time, let me relate a little incident that occurred at the intersection of Temple and Hinde streets.

A colored driver swung around the corner at the intersection, and residents of the neighborhood were aroused by a clatter and scraping of metal upon pavement.

The driver came to a stop. A rear wheel had come off the car, ran some distance, and dropped over on the sidewalk.

Hanging in the Record-Herald office at present is a huge stalk of some of the finest white Burley tobacco I have ever seen, and it was grown right here in Ohio.

It was brought in by Cay Michael and was sent to me by my old friend Jack Keppler, of Bainbridge, and Jack seems to have a patch of the weed that bids fair to top the market.

This huge stalk of tobacco just reminds me that you people who have been standing in line to get cigarettes, and usually do not get them, can take heart, for if the southern Ohio and Kentucky and Tennessee tobacco crops are any criterion as to what may be expected in the nation, there will be plenty of the nicotine weed to supply all of you, and then some.

Recently I saw thousands of acres of tobacco, and from trains and buses, it seemed to be unusually good. In fact some of the growers said it was a good crop, and the work of harvesting it is now under way.

Huge tobacco barns are being stuffed with the crops and where the folks can not afford a barn, they simply cut the tobacco, place it on drying racks, and it is hanging out in the open for the sun and rain to take turn working on it.

Some of the best tobacco grown in the United States is produced in our neighboring county of Highland, and the Miami Valley is also noted for its very fine tobacco.

Incidentally much soil in Fayette county is suited for production of this native of the Western Hemisphere and I'll venture the prediction that sooner or later, it will be grown on a large scale in the county, as it is usually a very profitable crop.

NEW CHIEFS OF AIR TECHNICAL SERVICE

Gen. Craigie Replaces Gen. Carroll in Research

DAYTON, O., Aug. 30.—(AP)—New chiefs of the Air Technical Service Command's engineering division and the radio and radar subdivision were named today by Maj. Gen. Hugh J. Knerr, commanding general at the ATSC at Wright Field.

Brig. Gen. Laurence C. Craigie replaces Brig. Gen. Franklin O. Carroll as chief of research, development and testing of AAF airplanes and equipment. Gen. Carroll has been assigned overseas.

Gen. Craigie came to Wright Field in 1944 as deputy chief of the division after serving as wing commander with a fighter group in the Mediterranean Theater.

Brig. Gen. Tom C. Rives, veteran communications engineer, will head the radio and radar subdivision. He replaces Col. Hobart R. Yeager, assigned to a Pacific post.

HUGE BOND ISSUES

MIDDLETOWN, O., Aug. 30.—(AP)—The city commission yesterday passed five emergency ordinances to pave the way for bond issues totaling $2,185,000 which will be submitted to voters in November. Largest of the issues was a $1,500,000 sewer project.

SUB-COMMITTEE WILL PICK PRISON SITE

Specialists Are Called Into Picture by Lausche

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 30.—(AP)—A sub-committee composed of specialists in penology and criminology will be appointed by the Ohio postwar program commission to survey Ohio's penal system and select a site for a new penitentiary.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche requested the survey upon the suggestion of former Lieutenant Governor Paul M. Herbert and a member of the commission. He also asked an investigation in the possibility of purchasing a government reservation for a penitentiary site, such as the 2,000 acre Scioto Ordnance Works at Marion.

Legislature, which appropriated $5,000,000 for construction of a new building replacing the prison built in Columbus in 1837, provided that funds for purchase of the land would be made available after the site was selected.

REPUBLIC STEEL CORP. AGAIN IN OPERATION

CANTON, O., Aug. 30.—(AP)—Republic Steel Corp. has resumed operations at two open hearths and one electric furnace at Canton and one open hearth at Massillon, idle since Aug. 15.

War contract cancellations and cutbacks still are making idle four open hearths and one electric furnace at Canton and six of nine open hearths at Massillon.

Recalls Morgan Raiders Escaped From Ohio Pen

By REED D. SMITH

COLUMBUS, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Most famous prisoner to occupy a cell and add a bizarre chapter to Ohio penitentiary history was Gen. John H. Morgan, dreaded leader of Morgan's Civil War raiders.

Morgan and 64 of his raiders who scoured Ohio were captured and sent to Columbus as federal prisoners of war. The general and six of his men staged a spectacular escape, documents reveal, although legend of a non-romantic sort holds he never succeeded in becoming a fugitive.

Be that as it may, a written document of the break quotes Morgan's brother, Col. Dick Morgan, and Col. Coleman, another raider, as giving the details some 50 years after the fugitives tunneled to freedom.

Recommendations on Lend-Lease Made by President In Statement Thursday

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—(AP)—President Truman notified Congress today that the more than $42,000,000,000 this country spent on lend-lease aid to its Allies should, in the main, be written off the books.

The reason—made clear in a lengthy report Mr. Truman sent to Capitol Hill—is that the administration believes the United States received three things more important than a dollar basis settlement. They are:

1. Victory over Germany and Japan.

2. More than $5,600,000,000 through last March in reverse lend-lease.

3. A commitment from all nations receiving lend-lease to join in organizing postwar international trade on the basis of lowering barriers.

In a letter, Mr. Truman told the lawmakers:

"With the defeat of the Axis powers, whose ruthless plan for world conquest and enslavement came so close to succeeding, the United States has realized the major objective for which lend-lease aid has been extended.

The President has ordered lend-lease operations halted, effective V-J Day, and has cut off requisitions for supplies which would have been ordered under the mutual aid program.

Arrangements are being worked out with lend-lease countries to switch their commerce to a peacetime basis. American officials will begin conversations with a British delegation next week for a credit substitute.

Summing up the gigantic program, Mr. Truman said:

"Each of our principal fighting partners has contributed to the pool of armed might in accordance with its full abilities and capacities."

Now, he added, the lend-lease arrangements are being wound up in an "expedient and orderly manner, subject to military needs (Please Turn to Page Two)

ARMED FORCES MERGER URGED

Pearl Harbor Report Shows Weakness Is Claimed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—(AP)—The Pearl Harbor report sparked a new drive in congress today for merger of the armed forces.

Supporters of the movement termed the report "convincing evidence" that a lack of coordination existed between the army and navy when the Japanese attacked.

They said the situation would not have existed had the army and navy been working together under one head both in Hawaii and Washington.

Likewise, they added, a recurrence can be prevented only by creation of a national department of defense.

Merger advocates said they would press for early action by the house postwar military policy committee.

SHIPYARDS STRUCK BY CONFLAGRATION

Oregon Plant Suffers Loss of Millions

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 30.—(AP)—Flames swept through Oregon Shipbuilding Corporation today, destroying possibly millions of dollars worth of newly completed vessels and killing a cabin painter.

The man drowned when he dived from a flaming ship into the basin. An asbestos operator was also missing.

The fire broke out on the Texas Victory, a completed ship, and roared within minutes over the U. S. S. Glynn, a troopship. Several other ships were caught in the blaze.

The outfitting dock caught fire. Flames swept under the piling, endangering the four 15-ton Whirley cranes on the dock.

CONGRESS STILL SEEKING ACTION ON JAP ATTACK

Cries for Court Martial of High Officers Are Being Raised

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—(AP)—President Truman declared today he thought the whole country, as much as any individual, was responsible for the Pearl Harbor disaster.

Mr. Truman told a news conference he had no objection to a court martial but didn't intend to order one.

In addition, he said he always had favored a unity of command for the Army and Navy, but didn't want to amplify his views on that now.

Answering a barrage of questions based on the release yesterday of official reports by boards of inquiry which investigated the events leading up to Pearl Harbor, the chief executive said he had read the documents carefully.

And, he said, he had come to the conclusion the whole thing was a result of the policy of the country itself. It wasn't ready for preparedness, he asserted.

The Army and Navy were ready today to close the books on Pearl Harbor, but Congress kept the furor over America's greatest naval disaster going with demands for courts martial and more inside information.

Chairman Elbert D. Thomas (D-Utah) of the Senate Military Committee remained silent pending talks with war department officials.

But Chairman May (D-Ky) joined a couple Republican members of the House Military Committee in clamoring for a military trial to fix responsibility for what happened December 7, 1941, when Japan destroyed or crippled a major segment of the Pacific fleet.

Some legislators too renewed their clamor for merging the Army and Navy into a single department of national defense.

"Top secret" labels were pulled yesterday from findings of special Army and Navy boards of inquiry into Pearl Harbor and accompanying reports by Secretary of War Stimson, Secretary of Navy Forrestal and Admiral Ernest J. King, commander in chief of the fleet.

One or another of the reports pointed accusing fingers at half a dozen men in high position, including Gen. George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff, and former secretary of state Cordell Hull.

There were no recommendations for courts martial or punishment and President Truman indicated there would be no military trials.

The reports dealt only with the findings and opinions of the inquiry boards. They omitted most of the testimony on which the reports were based.

A number of senators and representatives, particularly Republicans, wanted a look at the complete record. Some thought the public also was entitled to all the information on Pearl Harbor. Both Stimson and Forrestal said appropriate congressional committees would be given full records and reports.

Declaring he wouldn't stand for "any whitewash," May last night in a (MBS) radio program called for a "full, fair and open trial" of Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short and Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel, the Army and Navy commanders at Pearl Harbor at the outbreak of the war.

Several legislators took issue, however, with the criticisms of Marshall and Hull in the official reports.

BARBARA HUTTON IS GRANTED A DIVORCE

Husband 'Did Not Like My Friends' She Claims

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Barbara Hutton, thrice-married dime store heiress, was granted a divorce today from Cary Grant in a brief hearing at which the British-born film actor did not appear.

"He did not like my friends," Miss Hutton testified. "When he came down and my friends were there he obviously didn't look amused. That upset me. It made me very nervous and that caused me to go under a doctor's care."

Her attorney, Jerry Giesler, told the court there was no property settlement.

7,500 Paratroops And U.S. Marines Swarm in Area

MacArthur Says Japs 'Seems To Be Offering Complete Good Faith' as Occupation Proceeds Without Single Hostile Incident—British Fleet Moves for Occupation Of Hong Kong

By LEONARD MILLMAN

General MacArthur landed triumphantly in Japan today with 18,150 battleclad occupation forces and found the bloodless "invasion" "going splendidly."

The Supreme Allied Commander established his headquarters in bomb-shattered Yokohama. Admiral Halsey ran up his four star pennant at Yokosuka, transforming Nippon's second largest naval base into the first U. S. Navy shore headquarters in Japan. Nearby Atsugi Airfield was alive with paratroopers, arriving in the greatest mass flight the Pacific has ever seen.

Almost simultaneously a strong British fleet moved into Hong Kong, to reoccupy that crown colony. American minesweepers began clearing explosives out of Chinese ports to reopen the Orient to occidental forces and commerce.

New stories of Japanese terror came both from China and Japan. Eight American fliers who participated in the first bombing attack on Tokyo told in Shanghai of being beaten until they were black and blue from knee to hip.

Marine and naval forces swarming into the Yokosuka area found 500 wounded and sick prisoners of war in a "hell hole" miscalled a hospital, "suffering from the worst malnutrition imaginable." Among them was Maj. Gregory Boyington of Okanogan, Wash., 26-plane Marine ace of the South Pacific.

Lt. Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, hero of Bataan and most famed of all war prisoners, arrived in Manila from Chungking on his way to witness the signing of Japan's surrender Sunday aboard the battleship Missouri in Tokyo Bay.

The machine-like occupation of Nippon began at 6 A. M. Sunday (5 P. M. Wednesday, Eastern War time). Simultaneously, 7,500 paratroopers began swarming down at Atsugi airfield, 20 miles from Tokyo, and 10,650 Marines and sailors began occupying the Yokosuka area.

MacArthur, who landed eight hours later at Atsugi, gave the Japanese no opportunity to forget their first invasion of American territory. His silver transport plane was named "Bataan."

Seaborne forces were led by the Fourth Marine Regiment, made up of veterans of Guadalcanal, Guam and Okinawa. This is the old China Regiment which was virtually wiped out meeting the Japanese in the Philippines and in the gallant battles of Bataan and Corregidor.

Paratroopers were the 11th Airborne Division, who recaptured Nichols Field where Japanese virtually wiped out MacArthur's bomber force at the start of the war.

MacArthur said everything was going "completely according to prearrangement," and "the Japs seem to be offering us complete good faith."

Paratroopers paved MacArthur's way to Yokohama, port of Tokyo. They rode from Atsugi in Japanese trucks. Enemy officers along the dusty route saluted. Sentries were posted with their backs to the armed caravan. Civilians stared wooden-facedly.

The same stiff wooden attitude greeted Marines in the almost deserted Yokosuka naval yard.

Admiral Halsey ran up his own pennant over the Yokosuka naval base even before formal surrender was accepted by his chief of staff, Rear Adm. Robert Carney.

Halsey kept his actual headquarters aboard the Missouri, on whose masthead Admiral Nimitz's five star pennant will fly Sunday.

From the battleship South Dakota, his present flagship, Nimitz watched British Marines and sailors occupy two islands near the naval base, Fourth Regiment Marines take over the abandoned Futatabi forts facing the naval base, tank-led Marines overrun the base itself and sailors go aboard the wrecked enemy battleship Nagato. He credited the calm Japanese acceptance of the occupation to the fact that their emperor was still theoretical leader of his broken empire, though he will take his orders from MacArthur.

"The idea that we all are responsible is silly."

"The public may not have been prepared for war, but it was the job and the duty of the president and the armed forces to be ready for anything."

"That is their responsibility. I think the chief blame rests on the man who was in the White House at that time."

"He was commander-in-chief of the armed forces, and he made no secret of the fact that he regarded himself as his own secretary of state, too."

More Meat, Butter, Cheese Will Be Available Soon

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—(AP)—The climb toward better living got a boost today. OPA, starting Sunday, is handing out more meat, more, cheese, more butter. But the War Manpower Commission said 2,000,000 war workers have lost their jobs since Japan's fall. Some, however, have been rehired.

Otherwise the news—from industry and government—was good:

1. Within six months, travel by ship across the ocean may be fairly easy. Within a year, regular world cruises.

2. Farmers will give industry a rich market. Surveys show one in four wants a tractor or other machine, one in five a car or truck.

3. Courtesy behind the counter is coming back, say retailers—along with deliveries, easier credit and pre-war store services.

Canned milk becomes ration-free Sunday. Red points will buy about 28 percent more meat, 50 percent more cheese, 25 percent more butter and margarine. Fats and oils were unchanged.

BROWN CHALLENGES TRUMAN STATEMENT

Congressman Takes Issue With the President

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) expressed sharp disagreement with Mr. Truman's statement today that all of us are responsible for the Pearl Harbor disaster, and said he thought the blame should be put on the late President Roosevelt.

Brown said:

"The idea that we all are responsible is silly."

"The public may not have been prepared for war, but it was the job and the duty of the president and the armed forces to be ready for anything."

"That is their responsibility. I think the chief blame rests on the man who was in the White House at that time."

"He was commander-in-chief of the armed forces, and he made no secret of the fact that he regarded himself as his own secretary of state, too."

Panacea For Cold is Never Used

Deck Swabbers Have Easy Method Cleaning Mops When They Get Dirty

By HAL BOYLE

WITH HALSEY'S THIRD FLEET, OFF JAPAN.—(AP)—A navy pharmacist, aboard this big attack transport steaming toward a landing on the land of the Rising Sun, has solved the problem of how to cure a common head cold—but has little faith that mankind ever will adopt his remedy.

I told the pharmacist's mate, Lee Chase, Edmeston, N. Y., that I had picked up "the Pacific snuffles" and he said:

"I know the only way to cure it. You have to do four things: quit drinking, quit smoking, quit thinking about women, and go to bed at dark every night."

"But you'll never cure it. I can't get people to do all four of those things. I've had a cold out here for a year myself."

Despite his pessimistic outlook on human frailty, Chase looked tan and fit from his long seige (Please Turn to Page Nine)

SHRINE PARADE IN SPOTLIGHT HERE ON FRIDAY

Downtown March Will Precede Picnic Slated at Country Club

The Shrine parade slated to begin around 2:30 P. M. Friday before the Victory Shrine picnic at the Country Club starts, will be larger than at first anticipated, Belford Carpenter, president of the Shrine Club here, said today.

The color bearers of the uniformed bodies of Aladdin Temple in Columbus, will be here along with the drum and trumpet corps which will set the pace for the parade, Carpenter said.

At the head of the parade will be the color bearers, followed by John Summers, potentate of Aladdin Temple, Walter L. Stambaugh, the city manager and marshal of the parade, and other dignitaries.

The colorful uniformed drum and trumpet corps will follow the colorbearers and officials. After the corps will march the members of the Shrine Club here, R. B. Sharp and Selby Gerstner will act as lieutenants to keep the Shrine in line during the parade.

A complete circle of the downtown district is planned. The parade will form before the Cherry Hotel and will march from there to Market Street. On Market it will march until it comes to North Street where the parade is to make a right turn. Another right turn from North Street will head the parade down Court Street and through the main business district.

The parade will turn right again on Hinde Street and follow that street until it reaches Temple Street. It will march on Temple Street up Main Street where the parade will disband in front of the Bus Station.

Streets will be roped off for the line of march.

TWO VACANCIES NOW AT SUNNYSIDE HERE

There now are two vacancies on the Sunnyside School teaching staff after Miss Marian Moore, the third grade teacher, requested a leave of absence for this year, A. B. Murray, superintendent of city schools, said today.

Miss Moore, who asked leave because of family reasons, expects to return to the school system here next year, Murray said. She taught the third grade at Sunnyside.

Mrs. Doris Butzer will teach the Sunnyside third grade, leaving a first grade and a combined second and first grade teaching positions vacant.

Mrs. Lucille Davis, who taught at New Holland last year, will teach a second grade class at Sunnyside and Miss Lillian Teeters will teach a first grade. The extra first and second grades will be taught in the auditorium of the school, a measure necessary because of the increased enrollment, Murray.

Dean Britton of the Good Hope Grange has announced an inspection of the Grange will take place at their regular meeting, Tuesday night, September 4, and therefore all officers should be present.

Members planning to attend are asked to bring cup cakes and cold tea.

SCHOOL STARTS TUESDAY FOR HALF DAY MEET

Teachers' Session Slated in Auditorium Here Saturday

It will be just a half day of school Tuesday for the nearly 2,000 students in the Washington C. H. All scheduled classes will be held on double time so the youngsters can go home at noon, as is the custom here, A. B. Murray, superintendent of city schools, said today.

All high school students are to report to the high school auditorium at 8:30 A. M. Tuesday to get their class assignments, Murray said. Grade school students will report to their respective buildings as usual, he added.

Kindergarten registration for youngsters who will be 5 by December 31 is scheduled for Tuesday at Cherry Hill school, Murray said. The bus schedule for kindergarteners will not begin until Wednesday, he added. Parents are to bring their children to the school for registration Tuesday, he explained.

An increased enrollment in all the schools is expected this year, the superintendent said.

Teachers Meeting

The faculty of each school will meet at 9:30 A. M. Saturday in the high school auditorium to get materials, Murray said. The speaker for the Saturday meeting is George Pogue, secretary of the state teachers' retirement system, who will speak on recent changes in the system.

New teachers also will be introduced at the meeting. Last minute announcements are scheduled, Murray said. The session is to end at 11 A. M.

M. S. HAINS DIES AT BLOOMINGBURG

Had Long Been Prominent Resident There

Mr. M. S. Hains, 81, one of the best known residents of Bloomingburg, died at his home on Midland Avenue, in Bloomingburg, Thursday at 6 A. M., following a serious illness of three weeks.

Mr. Hains, a retired farmer, spent his entire life in the Bloomingburg community, and had lived in his present home for the past 30 years. He was a member of the Bloomingburg Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sula Hains; two daughters, Mrs. Glen Nisley of Chillicothe, and Mrs. Robert Templin of Bloomingburg; four grandchildren and two great grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Sarepta Short of Bloomingburg; and a brother, W. W. Hains.

Funeral services will be Saturday at the Klever Funeral Home, at 10:30 A. M. in charge of Rev. John Glenn of the Presbyterian Church of Bloomingburg. Friends may call at the funeral home.

Burial will be in the Bloomingburg Cemetery.

J. W. BALDWIN FUNERAL HELD IN MT. STERLING

Funeral services for J. W. Baldwin, a former resident of Washington C. H., were held at the Snyder Funeral Home in Mt. Sterling. Burial was made in the Washington C. H. cemetery.

Mr. Baldwin is survived by a sister, Miss Frances Baldwin of Mt. Sterling and two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Reno of Mt. Sterling and Mrs. Ruth Bogard of near Dayton.

LABOR DAY CLOSING DECIDED ON HERE

Business To Continue on Official V-J Day

Labor Day closing of all business houses and professional offices was recommended at a meeting of the Domestic Trade Committee of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night.

Remaining open when President Truman officially proclaims V-J Day also was recommended by the trade committee. The action was taken in view of the two-day holiday observed when peace was announced August 14.

A group meeting to determine the needs of business and professional people will be held soon, it was decided, after a discussion of business hours. Plans to increase the present market also were discussed.

Attending the meeting were George Steen, chairman of the committee, Harold McCord, John Leland, Charles Reinke, Dr. W. H. Limes, Ray Brandenburg, W. W. Humphries and James M. Riffe, Jr., executive vice president of the chamber.

for the movement of troops or for occupation purposes."

The report itself said, regarding final settlement:

"The overwhelming portion of lend-lease aid which now totals over $42,000,000,000 has been directly consumed by our Allies in the war."

It added that if so huge a debt were to the enormous financial obligations already incurred by foreign governments "it would have a disastrous effect upon our trade with the United Nations and hence among production and employment at home."

For years there has been talk of repayment "in kind." That meant that if the United States lend-lease tanks, trucks or machine tools to a country which had some left over after the war,

However, top officials said today there was no thought of any sizeable requests along this line. Such action, they added, would only add to the surplus of war materials building up in this country.

One point over which there once was considerable controversy—about $2,000,000,000 worth of machine tools obtained by Britain—was cleared up several months ago. A deal was made under which Britain bought the machinery outright with allowances for use and depreciation.

Today's report showed that to last July 1 total lend-lease amounted to $42,020,799,000.

In addition lend-lease goods amounting to $788,603,000 was assigned to commanding generals in the field. Thus the real total is somewhere near $43,000,000,000. Most of the exports went to the United Kingdom, with Russia next.

CENTRAL SCHOOL ROOMS CHANGED TO ONE FLOOR

The Central elementary school will be on one floor of the Temple Street wing of the high school instead of two floors as last year, A. B. Murray, superintendent of city schools, said today.

This year all the classrooms will be on the first floor of the wing. Last year, some of the classrooms were on the second floor. Murray said the schoolrooms were moved to prevent confusion caused by changing classes of the high school.

Bishop McConnell Will Be At Good Hope Sunday

The people of the Good Hope Parish are cordially inviting the public to hear Bishop Francis J. McConnell, retired bishop of the Methodist Church, who will give an address from the pulpit of the Good Hope church, Sunday at 2 P. M.

Bishop McConnell is a man of many gifts and potencies. He has achieved distinction in the pulpit and on the platform; in the administrative work of the ministry, the college presidency and the episcopacy; as a writer, debater, and thinker; as a mediator in industrial, a leader in interdenominational enterprises, and a guide and counselor in many causes for human betterment.

He was born on a farm in Ohio in 1871, and was educated at Ohio Wesleyan University and Boston University. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1894, and after serving as pastor for several years, he became president of DePaul University in 1909. Three years later he was elected bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with his residence at Denver.

In 1920 he was transferred to Pittsburgh, and in 1928 to New

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Uncle Sam's Lt. General Jonathan M. Wainwright, who is now enroute to Japan after his release from a Jap prison camp in Manchuria where he has been buried alive since his surrender of the American force at Corregidor, has become overnight one of the leading personalities in the great drama which is unfolding in Tokyo Bay.

All this is quite unwitting on Wainwright's part. On the contrary it's the last thing he would have expected. Throughout his terrible years of imprisonment he has been tortured with the nightmare of his surrender. He thought he must be in disgrace with the folks back home.

Even now he can hardly understand his elevation to fame. You get that from his humble statements—but more strikingly from the years of hell that show in the eyes of the radioed photo which was taken on his release. That picture haunts one, for it tells the story of a man who thought he had failed in his great stewardship. Read his statement to the press:

"I have had very little direct contact with my country or official agencies thereof or even with my family for over three years, but such contacts here and there as I have had have caused me to believe that the administration, the War Department and the American people have accepted my dire disaster with forbearance and generosity which perhaps are unique in the experience of a defeated commander."

Place beside this apologetic remark Wainwright's comment when arrogant and brutal General Homa made his second demand for American surrender of the hard-pressed American forces. This is related not by Wainwright but by a fellow officer who remains anonymous. Said the American commander:

"I've been to general staff school and the war college, but they never taught me what to do if I was called upon to surrender. I guess we shall have to continue fighting."

Finally there was nothing left for Wainwright to do but capitulate, or sacrifice the lives of his entire command without reason. "My gallant troops," he says, "had perhaps made a defense against more overwhelming odds, under more disadvantageous circumstances, than troops of the American army had ever been confronted with in history."

So it is particularly fitting that General MacArthur should have invited Wainwright, and members of the latter's staff who were in prison with him, to be present at the formal surrender of Japan aboard the battleship Missouri. In replying to MacArthur's message, Wainwright said of his colleagues:

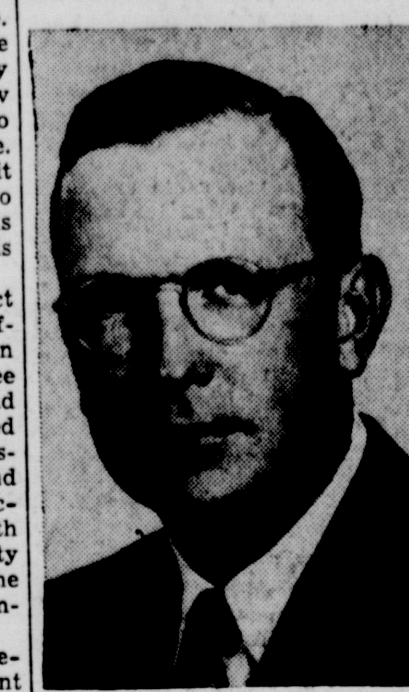

"All this group were with me on the tragic day when I had to surrender, and I'm especially anxious that they be present when we accept the Japanese surrender."

It is to be hoped that this gesture by MacArthur will help Wainwright to overcome his feelings about that surrender. He isn't the type who ever could look on himself as a hero, but the American people would like him

NEW TREASURER TO BEGIN TERM FIRST OF WEEK

Incoming Official Confined To Hospital So Deputy May Take Over

Charles Fabb, who last November was elected on the Republican ticket to the important post of treasurer of Fayette County, is scheduled to take office Monday, but the fact that he sustained serious burns three weeks ago while burning weeds with gasoline on his farm located on the Chillicothe road, will prevent him from assuming active charge of the office for sometime.

Charles Fabb

Because the incoming treasurer is now in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, recovering from the burns, and that he will be confined to the hospital for several weeks, brings about a situation which will probably be met by a deputy treasurer taking over the work until Fabb is able to be in the office.

The new treasurer-elect has to know that they regard him as a hero. We want him to know we fully recognize that his stand at Corregidor was a great moral victory, and that it was a mighty inspiration for the fighting men who went on to victory.

Uncle Sam says "well done" to a gallant man who will go down in history as having contributed much to the Allied cause.

P. S.—Wainwright was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross in Chungking yesterday for extraordinary heroism in action in the Philippines in 1942.

Scott's Scrap Book

named Mrs. Madison Swope, and Mrs. Doris Diffendal as deputies in his office, and both are known to be highly competent for the discharge of their duties. Definite plans for taking over the office are now being worked out.

Treasurer Fabb will succeed Willis E. McCoy, Democrat, who has held the office for 12 years, and whose record as treasurer has never been surpassed for excellence.

One of the things accomplished by the outgoing treasurer was unusually clean collections, part of the time during years when collections were extremely difficult, and he has also inaugurated some innovations that have proved popular with taxpayers generally.

Treasurer McCoy has been ably assisted by two regular deputies, Mrs. McCoy, and Mrs. Ralph Michael, other deputies having been employed during the rush periods, as needed.

RED POINTS TO BUY MORE FOOD AFTER SUNDAY

Reductions in Number for Various Articles Are Announced

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Red points will buy about 28 percent more meat, 50 percent more cheese, and 25 percent more butter and margarine beginning Sunday.

Canned milk becomes ration free.

Announcing these reductions in red point values today, Price Administrator Chester Bowles attributed them to larger allocations by the Agriculture Department and improved distribution.

Only in the case of fats and oils is the situation tighter than in August, Bowles reported. He added there is no indication of an early improvement there.

Estimating the average decrease in the point value of meats at about 28 percent, the OPA chief said both housewives and restaurants will be able to buy more meat than at any time since last March.

He asserted, however, the situation still does not permit the end of meat rationing "because supplies continue to be tight in many places over the country."

Steaks and roasts will be down from 2 to 3 points a pound; hamburger 2 and lamb and veal, 1 to 3 points. Pork steaks, chops and roasts go down 1 to 2 points; all bacon 2 points and spareribs drop 3 points.

Most meats that now have a value of 2 to 3 points go down 1 point. Creamery butter will cost 12 points. Margarine also goes down from 14 to 12 points.

The OPA also removed all restrictions on use of canned milk by manufacturers, hotels, restaurants and other establishments.

Points for all kinds of rationed cheese were cut in half.

Better Fuel
Ethyl gas is back. At least three large companies report that they are now shipping high-octane fuel in increasing amounts—destined for filling stations many of which for years have had "empty" signs on the ethyl tanks. And Secretary of Interior Ickes says there will even be plenty of 100-plus fuel for an expanded civil aviation program. But there are two notes of caution.

One is to the driver who expects too much from his first gallons of high-grade gas. The old bus won't necessarily leap from the station with the verve of a two-year-old. Partly because the car itself is not so young as it used to be, but also because the new stuff won't be undiluted. There will still be, in his tank, war-time gas which will mix with it, and lower the ethyl content. Not until all of the old is gone will he get full performance from the new.

The second concerns our fuel supplies in general. We can make, according to Secretary Ickes, "all the super fuel we want," but not indefinitely. Too great drains upon our petroleum resources, caused by a switch from other fuels to oil, would deplete them so fast that we would be importing oil within fourteen years. Unless, of course, atomic power comes sooner—which seems not too likely.

Free Economy Proves Strength
All through the history of man there has been a struggle between men in government and men not in government. Political power has been transferred back and forth by conquest and revolution. People free themselves by revolution and bloodshed, only to have governments slowly consume their freedom.

Up to the time hostilities ceased in Europe, men in the German government had such control over men not in government, that the destruction of freedom reduced people to the level of vassals. Citizens the world over are stunned by the reports of torture and suffering in this war at the hands of men in government. It has been proven that men in government abuse the privilege of extensive power over their fellow men. The only way to end this struggle between freedom and government, that has made history colorful with the constant spilling of blood, is to remove the opportunity for men to gain personal power in government. The founders of our government struck upon an idea to safeguard the men out of government from the ambitions of men seeking power in government. They limited the men in government to the preservation of the rights and property of the men out of government.

The founding fathers had to consider two types of economy: A dictated economy and a free economy. The dictated economy would have had the livelihood of a people controlled by the men in government. Under a free economy, individuals would be the creators of their own livelihood, with government restricted to formulating and enforcing laws to preserve men's rights under fair government regulation. A dictated economy is nothing new. It has existed under many different names.

When our people chose a free economy, they broke away from the old dictated economy controlled by men in government. The aim of our new country was to destroy the age-old dictated economy which enabled men in government to dominate men not in government. The wealth of our nation has remained in the hands of men not in government—the people.
Has our free economy failed? The answer is that the men not in government are still free, and that our nation is the wealthiest and strongest in the world today. But our free economy goes farther. In the more than one hundred and sixty years of its trial, the men not in government have worked with the men in government to such an extent that they have broadened our free economy by helping formulate policies which raised our standards of living to previously unheard of levels and enabled our country to give hope and material help to peoples of other nations who sought to break the paralyzing hold of men in government. This unity of purpose to preserve and strengthen freedom and justice, is the highest tribute to the superiority of a free economy.
Atomic Protection
President Truman seems to have given an adequate answer to squeamish citizens who were uneasy about American bombing of Japan. He says:
"Having found the atomic bomb, we used it. We have used it against those who attacked us without warning at Pearl Harbor, against those who have starved and beaten and executed American prisoners of war, against those who have abandoned all pretext of obeying international laws of warfare."
Remember when people sang "We have no bananas today?" Well, we're more high-falutin now—we have no plutonium, and our scientists don't know when they can get us a supply.

Treating Migraine Headache
By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
OF all the different kinds of headache migraine is by all means the most severe and probably the most difficult to treat. In migraine there are headaches which occur at intervals. Usually they affect just one side of the head and the pain is behind the eye. Frequently the headache is preceded by some disturbance of vision, hearing, taste or smell. There is some evidence that the condition seems to run in families. The attacks usually are accompanied by sickness of the stomach and vomiting. In between attacks, those affected have no symptoms whatsoever.
According to Doctors Stuyvesant Butler and William A. Thomas of Chicago, it is generally believed that migraine is brought on by the release into the blood of a substance known as histamine. This is a toxic or poisonous substance which is formed in the body as a result of a reaction on its part to substances to which a person may be oversensitive.
Histamine Injections
In view of this fact, they attempted treatment of migraine using injections of histamine in gradually increasing amounts to lessen the sensitivity to it. No patients were treated who might have had their attacks from other causes such as sinus infection, high blood pressure or eye strain. They treated 34 persons who had severe or moderately severe migraine attacks. The injections were given into a vein. Too rapid injections caused flushing of the face, rapid heart beat and severe headache.
In carrying out their treatment Doctors Butler and Thomas dissolved the histamine in a large amount of salt solution and took a period of from four to eight hours to give the total quantity of material. During the injection, the blood pressure was taken every hour and if a drop in pressure occurred, the treatment was stopped. No persons were treated who had either high blood pressure or heart or kidney damage, or a history of peptic ulcer.
Severe Case
Only those patients were treated who had attacks severe enough to interfere with their activities. Only three of the 34 patients failed to get relief from the treatment. Seven were improved in that their headaches became less severe or less frequent. Twenty-four were completely free of symptoms.
From this study it would appear that the treatment by injections of histamine would seem to be of great value for certain patients who are suffering from typical migraine headaches.

SYNOPSIS
SANDRA EDWARDS is an attractive, red-headed dress designer who volunteers to take 11-year-old SPENSER WITHINGTON, an English boy who was bombed out of his home, into her five-room apartment to live for the duration of the war.
CHAPTER FIVE
"THAT'S WHAT I mean," Sandra said in a soft voice to Mrs. Fennimore. "I'll jolly well come dashing back to you" kept ringing in her ears. The British boy's remark had all the insolence of a Chicago urchin's "Phooey to you!" or some other similar insult.
The boy spoke up: "What did you say, Miss Edwards?"
"I was speaking to Mrs. Fennimore."
"Oh, I beg your pardon," Spenser began handing the filled teacups, passing them with a skill that astounded the young dressmaker. She said again to her friend: "You see, don't you?"
"Dear Sandra," murmured Mrs. Fennimore, in a vague sounding way. Really the words held no vagueness. It was as if she had ordered: "Hush, Sandra!"
"Aren't we cozy?" the older woman asked a while later, "having our tea up here? All the other children are having it in the dining room." Her eyebrows shot upward interrogatively. "Perhaps you'd rather be with them, Spenser?"
Miraculously, with a mouthful of cake and the slice suspended beneath his lips, ready for another attack, the English child had an unbelievable amount of dignity.
"No, Mrs. Fennimore. I like it here."
Sandra sipped her tea, watching the boy, striving to decipher that dignity. It probably was the glasses, she decided. And the rough tailored jacket with its stiff look. The starched white shirt collar. The wide, unbuttoned necktie. Yet it was more than horn-rimmed spectacles and stiff clothes. Everything about him contributed to that dignity, that British reserve that he used for a shelter until he was ready to cast it aside and smite someone with his own brand of attack.
Mrs. Fennimore was repeating: "You really should stay here a while, Spenser, so we could study your reactions, but I have a pretty good idea what they will be."
And so have I, she thought, the glance Sandra was throwing in the direction of the child welfare worker. It infuriated the girl—Mrs. Fennimore's indifference because she knew the older woman was aware of the emotions of everyone.
She kept on talking: "But Miss Edwards lives so near that we are going to let you go immediately

Washington at a Glance
By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON — There's a great big laugh here in Washington on those members of Congress who have been moaning for four years that we would never get rid of censorship, price controls, rationing, priorities and all our other government wartime restrictions.
Congress cut its nine-week vacation practically in half, but it already is apparent that the would-be ax-wielders are returning to the chopping block to discover there's practically nothing left to cut off.
Even before the Japanese could screw up courage to meet Gen MacArthur face to face, a business man couldn't keep pace with the way wartime restrictions were falling off.
War agency employees were getting in the habit of calling to find if they still had jobs before they gulped their coffee; jalopies were capering all over the place on full tanks of gas; and merchants here in the heart of wartime restrictions were hanging out signs: "If we haven't got it, we soon will have."
Censorship Director Byron Price was the first to put up the "Out of Business" placard. "Old Curmudgeon" Harold L. Ickes didn't wait 48 hours to lift the ban on gasoline and fuel oil. His capable director, Ralph K. Davies, told friends that the Petroleum Administration for War would be gone completely within 120 days.
OPA started lifting rationing so fast shoppers couldn't keep up with them; Secretary of Agriculture Anderson began to talk about plenty of unrationed meat by fall. The War Labor Board stripped itself of about 90 per cent of its authority.
The War Manpower Commission opened the doors on job restrictions. WPB cut loose basic metals and a score of other things that opened the flood-gates of reconversion.
I could go on listing for columns, but the list would be incomplete before this gets into print.
There's a reason for it, of course — one that isn't easy to dig out. After questioning officials in half a dozen agencies, including WPB, PAW, I have concluded that it is principally because nearly all these war agencies are run by industry men. These men are just as sick of wartime controls as any of us — and incidentally just as sick of government red tape.
There's a political implication in the speed with which war controls are being lifted too: anti-administration forces, both Republicans and green-pasture Democrats, are going to find one of their powerful "weapons" of administration criticism has melted away in their hands.
If Congress doesn't hurry, it won't even have the pleasure of hurling more bricks into the windows of Elmer Davis's Office of War Information.
Congress will of course get the satisfaction and full credit for taking us off War Time and putting us back on "God's Time" but that'll be a pretty small victory. When Congress voted daylight saving time in the first place, it specifically reserved to itself the right to put an end to it.

*Author's Birthday
In the fields, under the open heavens, among the flowers, and trees and birds and beasts, we find constant signals of the passing of time and an expert eye might perhaps tell the hour of the day, not only by the shadows cast by the sun, but by the sights and sounds of the landscape, from the aspect or fragrance of the flowers, or the note of birds and insects, or the turn of cattle. Each hour has not only its external signs, but also its interior marks, and the mood of the life keeps step with the march of the day. Morning is what it pretends to be in the country and not a sleepy appendage to the night... It comes upon us with a blaze of glory. The morning light in the open country is the best of tonics and braces and will do its work. Labor begins with its dawning and continues with its continuance and closes with its closing.

THE BEAUTIES OF PALEY
The art in which the secret of human happiness is a great measure consists is to set the habits in such a manner that every change may be a change for the better. The luxurious receive no greater pleasure from their dainties than the peasant does from his bread and cheese, but the peasant, whenever he goes abroad, finds a feast. The man who has learned to live alone feels his spirits enlivened whenever he enters into company, and takes his leave without regret.

YOKOSUKA FIRST U. S. NAVAL BASE IN JAPAN
ABOARD USS SOUTH DAKOTA, Tokyo Bay, Aug. 30—(AP)—Admiral Nimitz said tonight the Yokosuka Naval Base will become the first Allied shore base in Japan. It is to be occupied by U. S. Marines tomorrow morning (Wednesday evening, U. S. time). The naval base is only a short distance from this and other anchored ships of the U. S. Third Fleet.

FATHER BURNS BOY AS HARSH LESSON
CINCINNATI, Aug. 30—(AP)—William W. Ridge, 34, truck driver, was convicted in municipal court today of torturing his seven-year-old son, Harry, by burning his right hand with a flaming newspaper, but sentence was deferred pending an investigation by the probation department.
Ridge admitted in court that he applied the burning paper to his son's hand on Tuesday to "cure him of playing with matches and setting fires."
"I tried every other method to correct him," Ridge told Judge George E. Tebb, Jr., "but I see now I made a mistake." The boy suffered second-degree burns.

Thursday Bridge Club Has Lawn Supper for Rosts Who Leave City This Week

Fiesta Color Motif Makes Colorful Setting Near Out-door Oven on Back Lawn of Home; Evening of Bridge Follows

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Christopher were host and hostess to ten couples who belong to a Thursday bridge club when they entertained them at a lawn supper at their home on Hopkins Street, Wednesday evening, followed by an evening of bridge. The informal party was given in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Rost who are leaving Friday afternoon with their family for Lake Tahoe, California, where they will make their new home. Mr. Rost has resigned his position of manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company exchanges here and in Xenia.

A large table, appointed with fiesta ware and decorated along the same colorful motif was placed near the out-door oven on the back lawn of the Christopher home for the supper hour. Fried chicken, roast corn and dessert delicacies were a featured part on the menu for the meal which was cooked on the oven.

Centering the picnic table was a bowl of marigolds at one end while at the other a watergarden of red roses was admired. Assisting the Christopher's during the meal was their young daughter, Sue.

During the remainder of the evening the guests enjoyed playing bridge in the attractive appointed living room. Bowls and vases of summer flowers were seen at vantage points.

Mrs. John Forsythe won the first prize in the bridge game and second high went to Mrs. Robert Dunton.

Before the guests departed late in the evening, a scrapbook compiled by the club members was presented as a farewell token to the Rosts, long popular as one of the city's favorite couples in social circles. Their enthusiastic appreciation for the book which contained pictures of each family and home of those in the bridge club was reward enough for the effort put forth.

Those present included Mr. and

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's

Doan's, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Marriage of August 19 Announced by Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Arahoad are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Martha, to Mr. Paul Curl.

The double ring ceremony was performed at the Baptist Church parsonage on Sunday, August 19, with Reverend H. B. Twining officiating.

For her wedding, the bride chose a navy blue crepe frock trimmed with gold sequins, with which she combined accessories of navy blue and white. She wore a corsage of red rose buds.

Mr. and Mrs. George Geesling were the couple's only attendants. Mrs. Geesling chose a navy blue crepe frock with matching accessories, and a corsage of red rose buds.

The bridegroom has served with the army overseas and has recently been honorably discharged. The new Mr. and Mrs. Curl will reside in Findley where their apartment is in readiness for them.

OLD STATE PEN HAS HELD MANY FROM FAYETTE

Three Die In Chair After Crimes Committed in This County

Scores of Fayette Countians were among the more than 82,000 prisoners who were sentenced to the present Ohio penitentiary for crimes committed within the county, and interest centers upon the fact at the present time because the dingy old prison is soon to be abandoned and a modern one takes its place.

Not only does the old prison on Spring Street in Columbus still hold a number of Fayette county prisoners, but three men sent up from here for first degree murder have died in the electric chair.

They are:
Leo Halterman, for murdering his half-brother, Charles Halterman and wife at their farm home north of Jeffersonville late one night, by shooting Charles with a shotgun and beating Mrs. Halterman to death with the gun when she went to her husband's rescue after hearing the fatal shots fired.

Everett Jones, for shooting to death Robert Lindsey while holding up the Lindsey restaurant in Jeffersonville the night of July 4, 1937.

James W. Collett, executed last spring for the triple murder of Elmer McCoy, Mrs. McCoy and their daughter, Mildred, at their farm home.

A number of Fayette countians, or persons tried here for crimes in the county, were sentenced to life imprisonment for their crimes, and several of them died in the prison.

At the present time Walter Barnes, with Everett Jones at the time of the killing, is the only Fayette county man serving a life sentence, and indications are he will be paroled within a few years.

Barnes admitted being with Jones, and named Jones as the "trigger" man, but after Jones was found guilty and sentenced to death, changed his story and said he killed Lindsey. However he later admitted to a Record-Herald reporter that he was just trying to save Jones from the chair.

Pfc. Raymond Kelso returned to Newton Baker General Hospital, Martinsburg, West Virginia, after being home on a 90 day furlough.

A SPECTACLE with epic sweep, Republic's "Flying Tigers," which opens Sunday at the State Theatre, won unqualified praise from all who witnessed its dramatic unfolding. Much may appear on the printed page about the bravery of the various fighting services abroad, but a motion picture is worth reams and reams of printed matter when it comes to bring home to patriotic Americans the bravery of the men who are protecting their homes, their families and their way of life. John Wayne, who may always be counted on to deliver a smooth, polished and sincere performance, doesn't fail in his top starring role. He portrays the young Squadron Leader of the Flying Tigers, whose exploits protecting the Burma Road will go down in history as an immortal saga of technical skill and personal heroism. Also on the same program—"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," which made twenty million readers howl with laughter, is the record of a famous jaunt made by two nineteen-year-old belles who crossed the Atlantic to find something romantic. Paramount's screen version, which opens Sunday at the State Theatre, is full of hilarity of the original script, and presents in the starring roles a comedy team that is excruciatingly impish, that of Gail Russell and Diana Lynn.

GERMAN YOUTHS STILL IN FAVOR OF THE FUEHRER

German Girls Appear More
Nazified Than Boys
Following War

OFFENBACH, Germany, Aug. 30.—(P)—German girls appear more Nazified than boys, an American survey discloses, reporting that though these youngsters "attempt to mouth democratic and pro-American sentiments," they have little conception of democracy.

After a week of study and questioning of 254 German boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 18 in this city, the army's information control intelligence division drew a picture of a hypothetical "typical" German youth in the American zone.

"This youth wants to continue living in Germany and considers Russia the worst place in the world in which to live," the report said. "He feels that Germans as people are superior to Italians, Poles, Russians and French, but not to Americans and Britons."

The "typical" youth attributes allied victory over Germany to superior materials and air supremacy. While ready to admit Germany started the war, he also places "responsibility" on Jews, Englishmen and Poles.

He "expresses the view that Germany should become a democracy," the report said. "At the same time, however, he says the idea of national socialism was good, but not carried out right."

"He hesitates on whether Hitler himself was bad or whether it was just his advisors who were bad. In any case he is convinced that Germany now needs a strong fuhrer in order to recover from her destruction."

"He agrees quite wholeheartedly that a free press is a fine thing for the country, but at the same time feels that newspapers should print only what is good for the people. He is strongly convinced the average person is stupid and misled by propaganda."

In general the report said the survey indicated German youth was little concerned about the political future of Germany, but "almost entirely absorbed in personal and economic problems"—principally food and jobs.

FEWER PLANES PASSING OVER SINCE THE WAR

Most of Training Ends at Several of the Nearby
Airports

A great many residents of this community have not yet missed the roar of many bombers passing over the city and county, day and night, but these giant training ships are not being sent up in anything like the number they were when crews were being trained to blast Germany and Japan.

Immediately after Japan quit, it seems that most of the training of bomber and fighter airmen ceased, and planes were grounded.

Occasionally planes pass over, but they are usually passenger planes or army planes bound on definite missions other than that of training crews to drop "eggs" in the right place to do the most damage, or training fighters to rip up their opponents with a burst of machinegun fire before the enemy could get them.

During part of the time the B-17's and other bombers, including some B-29's were based at Lockbourne, it was a common sight to see one to a half score of bombers passing over, and to hear the roar of motors every hour of the day and night.

Not only did planes fly over this area from Lockbourne, but fighter and training planes as well as test planes from Wright Field and Patterson Field, and many other fields went over almost daily.

Many gliders, probably based at the Clinton County Airport, were also seen over the county, and so far as known, only one ever landed in the county, and that was just north of Washington C. H.

No serious plane crashes occurred in the county while the vast amount of training was underway.

Passenger and mail planes also made their regular trips over the area.

Thousands of residents of Fayette and surrounding counties saw the trail of vapor left by high-flying planes that could neither be seen or heard by reason of their great height. These planes were being tested for altitude performance, and so the pilots would become familiar with operational work in the stratosphere.

Never again, in all probability, will many bomber and fighter planes be seen over the community in any great numbers.

Two Guests

Mrs. Lotta Hanawalt and Mrs. Bert Wilkin were guests of the bridge club, entertained by Mrs. J. W. Greisheimer.

To conclude the playing, scores were tallied and prizes awarded Mrs. E. L. Rooks and Mrs. Martin Curren. The traveling gift went to Mrs. Neville Fairley. The hostess brought the evening to a close by serving a dessert course.

Honored At Shower

Barbara Ann Blaser, who with her mother, Mrs. Frank Blaser (Evelyn Fishback) of Chicago, is visiting here, was honored at a baby shower given Saturday evening by Miss Jeanette Kerns and Mrs. Donald Hatch at the home of Miss Kerns.

When the guests arrived they were seated at small tables, in pink and white appointments for the serving of a dessert course.

The diversion for the afternoon was contract bridge.

The scoring trophies were presented Miss Ann Kyle and Mrs. Lowell Wilkin, with the traveling gift being received by Mrs. John Young.

The guest list included Mrs. Dean Whitely of Columbus, Mrs. Carl Bender of Washington C. H., Miss Marietta Downs, Miss Jean Ann Spargur, Miss Ruth Cooper, Miss Elizabeth Ann Wilson, Mrs. Bowen Carter, Mrs. Lawson Diggs, Mrs. S. W. Fenning, Mrs. Eugene Burris, Mrs. Phil Kelly, Mrs. Hugh DeHaas, Mrs. Francis Easter, Miss Kyle, Mrs. Wilkin and Mrs. Young.

Covered-dish Dinner

The Loyal Home Builders Class of the Central Church of Christ assembled in the basement of the Church Friday evening for a covered dish dinner.

Games formed diversion and Mrs. Alva Emery, teacher of the class, was presented a blanket.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Loeck and children, Phyllis and William and Mrs. Loeck's father, Edward Roads of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ralston, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roush, Mrs. Sam Whitely and granddaughter, Jeanne.

Celebrated 90th Birthday

Mrs. J. B. Glenn and Mrs. Wilson Miller spent Friday with their father, Aaron Head, who resides in the Ohio Masonic Home in Springfield, Mr. Head, who formerly lived in Greenfield, celebrated his 90th birthday anniversary August 24.

He has been a member of the local Masonic Lodge for 68 years and the secretary for 25 years.

He has a 50 year pin from the Blue Lodge and a 50 year pin from the Commandery.

On his birthday the following Masons from here visited him at the Masonic Home: Paul Watt, H. M. Fullerton, C. S. Clouser, George Thomas, Charles Johnson, Tom Badgley and J. M. York.

Friday Club Entertained

A cordial welcome was extended members of the Friday Club when Mrs. James Smith opened her home to receive them. She was assisted by Mrs. A. B. Hildebrandt.

The program for the afternoon opened with the roll call, "Why the Blues."

Mrs. Ben Johnson gave a reading, "What's On Your Mind."

A selected reading was given by Mrs. Robert Wilson.

During a pleasant social hour, the hostesses served a salad course.

Those present included Mrs. Ed Ruppel, Mrs. Thomas Braden, Mrs. C. I. Cope, Mrs. Hugh Hull, Mrs. Joseph Cowman, Mrs. E. A. Daniels, Mrs. John Winegar, Mrs. W. H. Cowman, Mrs. Joe Hull, Mrs. Walter Jury, Mrs. Stanley Toyer, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Wilson.

SUGAR—the magic ingredient

Few realize how really important sugar is until it's difficult to get. You may think of it as just something sweet for your coffee, tea, cereals and fruits. Actually, sugar is the magic ingredient in many every-day foods—bread, ice cream and desserts, jellies and canned fruits. It's the indispensable product which makes most foods palatable and attractive. Right now, sugar is scarce and will be for some time due to a severe drought which cut down Cuba's crop of raw cane sugar this year.

And sugar must continue to be sent to our armed services. Also, at Government direction, sugar is going overseas to help feed people in liberated lands.

"You never miss the water till the well runs dry." Use your sugar stamps wisely—and make a little do a lot.

'FAG' SITUATION GROWING BETTER IN COMMUNITY

Some Dealers Now Have 'Cigs' Openly Displayed First Time in Months

"Fag" friends are swarming into several of the city's retail and confectionary establishments to buy a pack of their favorite brand, when available, after the word had run the grapevine that they had cigarettes for sale.

The interesting fact about this is that some of the dealers are now putting their small supply out in plain sight on the tobacco counters—this creating a different policy from the past.

A "first come, first served" plight has left many a smoker out in the cold.

However, if he is still in the favor of his "contact," he (or she) may get a pack at the other stores in town which are continuing their policy of saving the cigarettes for their regular customers, thus eliminating the danger of roaming shoppers buying up all in sight.

Pipe tobacco, which has been scarce in the stores, is again appearing on shelves in some of the stores. This is welcome news to men who have cut down or quit smoking cigarettes and relied on their pipe.

It is pointed out by dealers that the supply of cigarettes while somewhat better, is not yet abundant by any means, and that it may be sometime before everyone can obtain all of the cigarettes they desire.

One pack to a customer is the rule, and dealers frankly admit they do not know when the former carton sales will be resumed.

Indications are that there will be a steady improvement in the tobacco situation generally.

PANACEA FOR COLD NEVER USED; DECK SWABBERS USE NEW SYSTEM NOW

with the Pacific sun. He spoke of two brothers in the service.

"My brother is overseas, too," he grinned. "He is in Kentucky."

Housewives would envy the mop-cleaning technique of the U. S. Navy. Seaman 2-c Frank Z-kind, Walnut Creek, Calif., stopped swabbing down decks long enough to explain it:

"In civilian life you'd call these just good old-fashioned mops, but in the navy we call them swabs."

"When they get dirty, you just bundle three or four together, take a line and put a clove hitch around their necks, put on a couple of half hitches and heave them over the side."

"Sea water does the rest. It pounds them clean in 10 minutes."

Anti-aircraft gunners notoriously have trouble drawing beads on fast flying enemy aircraft. Usually, they fail to aim far enough ahead of their target and their streams of bullets trail the plane as it speeds across the horizon.

The gunnery officer aboard this transport sought to correct that tendency by painting this sign on the splinter shield around each gun:

"For God's sake, lead 'em."

SAYS UNEMPLOYMENT IS FEDERAL PROBLEM

Secretary of Labor Favors Definite Plans

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—(AP)—The country cannot afford to "risk the chance" of wide unemployment by a hands-off policy on the part of the government on job controls, Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwellenbach said today.

The new labor secretary told a Senate Banking Subcommittee he was in full accord with the principles of the Wagner-Murray job assurance measure, and criticized those groups which, he said, believe it is "economically desirable to have a large pool of unemployed upon which to draw."

"I think those who take this position are mistaken," he asserted. "It may be that during the time when the problem of production was very difficult such arguments were valid. However the problem of production has been licked in this country. Our problem now is one of consumption. We can produce plenty."

Schwellenbach said former New Deal programs of providing work—such as NRA, WPA, the Public Works Administration—have been "in the nature of partial approaches to the problem."

Every private device to attain full employment should be used first, he said, and only when that fails should public devices be used.

Always let hot foods cool to room temperature before placing in your refrigerator.

SHOTGUN TRAIL LEADING LAW TO POULTRY THIEF

Jeffersonville Farmer Blazes Away at Men Stealing Chickens

Sheriff Orland Hays is following a shotgun trail to nab two chicken thieves.

The men were taking chickens from a farm near Jeffersonville when the owner of the flock, who asked that his name be withheld, loosed some number six shot into one of the men as he was bending over a chicken coop to steal some of the poultry, Hays said. The farmer also hit a second man just as he was rounding the barn.

Although the farmer chased the chicken thieves for five miles, he was unable to get the license number of their automobile.

Hays said he was checking with doctors and sheriffs in nearby counties in an effort to arrest the men who were taking the chickens. As for the farmer, he's still keeping a weather eye peeled for the men and is hoping they come back to his farm. "I want to finish it off," he commented.

In 1859 it was discovered that petroleum could be produced from the earth by drilling.

Bartlett Pears

These are large, fancy, northwestern Bartlett Pears. They are firm, sweet and juicy. These are the same pears that canners of nationally advertised foods use for canning.

Even though canned pears are no longer rationed, the Government is taking more than half of the pears canned this year. Therefore, we will not have enough canned pears to meet our customers' needs.

We strongly urge you to can pears now!

Benton's Form Reversal Now Has 'Em Guessing

By JACK HAND
By the Associated Press
Al Benton's form reversal has Detroit guessing today with the early-season sensation running a three-game losing streak and the Tigers' lead sliced to a single length.

was postponed because of wet grounds.
Cincinnati's tattered Reds, who had won only four of their last 25 before St. Louis came to town, continued to repeat by making it two in a row, 3-1. Vern Kennedy did the job on the Red Birds yesterday, defeating Blix Donnelly who was making his first appearance in almost a month.
Chicago stretched its National League advantage to 4 1/2 games by knocking off Pittsburgh, 2-0. After Ray Prim wilted in the 9th degree heat, Hy Vandenberg came on to complete the whitewash job against Nick Strincevich.
Two unearned runs against Philly Dick Barrett enabled Brooklyn to keep its flag hopes alive with a second straight 2-1 verdict behind Curt Davis. Barrett committed a balk, permitting one score and the other results from Jimmy Wadell's boost of Dixie Walker's bounce.
New York and Boston again had an open date.

Post-War Football Makes Roaring Debut at Chicago

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Post-war football makes a roaring debut tonight when the College All-Stars and the Green Bay Packers clash in a charity spectacle that will pack 92,000 fans into sprawling Soldier Field.
The colorful harbinger of the first peace-time season since 1941 will send the favored Packers, National Football League champions, against 65 of the best collegiate players produced in the past five years.
The Packers, spear-headed by the finest pass-snatcher in the business, 32-year-old Don Hutson, were 7 to 5 choices as they sought the seventh professional triumph in the 12-year series. The All-Stars won three games and two were tied.
An All-Star victory, however, would hardly stun the capacity crowd since the Collegians are coached by crafty Bernie Bierman of Minnesota.

Long departed from their respective campuses, such stellar performers as Charles Trippi of Georgia, Tom Harmon of Michigan, Bob Kennedy of Washington State, Ernie Bonelli of Pittsburgh and Johnny Strzalski of Marquette will carry the mail for the All Stars.
Both teams are expected to unleash a barrage of passes since the new rule permitting college elevens to toss from any point behind the scrimmage line will be operative.
Bierman will reply on pass targets among such ends as Ted Cook of Alabama, Bill Huber of Notre Dame, Jack Dugger of Ohio State and Walter Lamb of Oklahoma.
The Packers will be making their third appearance in the series. They lost 6-0 in 1937, but spanked the 1940 All-Stars, 45-28. The All-Stars were nipped by the Chicago Bears last season, 24-21, and scored their last victory in 1943 when they trimmed the Washington Redskins, 27-7.

Feller Will Take Turn On Mound

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians won't pick spots for Bob Feller.
Manager Lou Boudreau announced yesterday Rapid Robert would work in turn, regardless of the day of the week, the opposition or possible gate receipts.
"Working in turn does not necessarily mean that a pitcher works every fourth day," Boudreau declared. "Feller didn't pitch on any such rigid schedule at Great Lakes so he may want some extra rest occasionally."
"I'm hoping he will want to work every fourth day," Lou added. "If so, he'll pitch in Detroit Saturday, not Sunday. That way, he'd be able to open the series in Boston next Wednesday and pitch against each of the other eastern clubs as well."
Although idle yesterday, the Indians gained a virtual fourth-place tie with New York as the Boston Red Sox dropped the Yankees 1 to 0.
Pete Center will oppose Thornton (Lefty) Lee of the Chicago White Sox today as the teams meet in the once-postponed series finale.

Gridiron Prospects Working Out

The 57 boys working out at Gardner Park for the WHS football season are concentrating on block and tackle practice under J. R. Brammer's watchful eye now.
Brammer indicated he had not selected the first string men yet but rather was giving all the boys a thorough workout. All the boys are in good physical shape and, it was said, their average weight is higher than last year. All in all, hopes are pretty high for the first game of the season.
Unbalanced line and T-formations are the most frequently used at the field these days.

GRAIN MARKET NEWS SUMMARY

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—AP—Heavy buying of rye futures on a report that permits will be issued for export of 1,000,000 bushels of the nation's small visible supply in terminals caused rye prices to leap upward the permissible 3 cent a bushel limit today.
Wheat and oats firmed in sympathy after early setbacks, with shortcovering in oats also attributed to talk of export interest in that grain.
Corn was unable to gain with other grains, due to selling influenced by favorable weather for maturity of the late new crop. Farmers still are not marketing their old corn, however, and it has become extremely scarce.
Rye closed 4 1/2 to 5 cents higher than the previous finish, September $1.49 1/2, wheat was 1/2 off to 1/4 up, September $1.65 1/2, corn was 1/4 off to 1/4 up, December $1.15 1/2, oats were 1/4 to 1 1/2 cents higher, September 58 1/2, and barley was up 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents, September $1.07 1/2.

DAY'S ACTIVITIES IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—AP—Individual stocks maintained their balance in today's market although many leaders continued the retreat under exceptionally light pressure.
Dividends, earnings and hopefulness over a recovery in prosperity again were bolstering factors. Apprehension regarding price ceilings, labor disputes and belief more of a technical correction of the sharp upswing would be witnessed served to inspire further caution.
Dealings were sluggish from the start and fractional declines predominated near the fourth hour.
Backward were Chrysler, U. S. Steel, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Douglas Aircraft, Kennecott, Consolidated Edison, Westinghouse, General Electric, Union Carbide, Distillers Corp. and Youngstown Sheet. Resistance was displayed by Hayes, Mfg., Dresser, Industries, Cero, De Pasco, General Motors, Woolworth, American Telephone and Sears Roebuck.

HAPLESS RED BIRDS LOSE NINTH STRAIGHT IN A ROW

(By the Associated Press)
Even the hapless Columbus Red Birds refuse to help the waning pennant bid of the Indianapolis Indians in the American Association race.
The be-draggled tribe absorbed its ninth straight trimming last night as ancient Charley Root, manager of the Red Birds, handcuffed the second-spot Hoosiers with four hits for a 3-2 decision.
That enabled pace-setting Milwaukee to pick up half a game for a four and a half game lead over the Indians as the Brewers divided with Minneapolis, 6-4 and 1-5.

API Is Out Of Running

Washington C. H.'s API softballers were eliminated from the Tri-County Tournament at Leesburg after taking a 4-2 defeat from the Clinton County Army Air Field team.
Wilson, who was on the mound for the API, allowed five hits and struck out one batter while the team collected four hits from Gardner pitching for the air corpsmen.
The tournament finals are to be played Labor Day night at the Leesburg ball park.

Reds Begin Trio Friday With Pirates

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds had nothing to do today but plot a three-game campaign against the Pittsburgh Pirates starting tomorrow and shortle over what they did to the St. Louis Cardinals in the series just ended.
As baseball fans know, the Cards are battling the league-leading Chicago Cubs for the National League pennant. In fact, St. Louis whipped the Cubs three straight last week and reduced the top-notchers lead to two and a half games.
But then the Red Birds ran into Cincinnati and lost the first game Tuesday night and yesterday blew the other one, 3-1, while the Cubs were winning two from Pittsburgh.
Vern Kennedy yesterday turned in a neat eight-hit pitching job while his Cincinnati mates raked Blix Donnelly and Ken Burkhardt for 10 blows including Eric Tipton's seventh inning homer.

-Spying- On Sports

By Hugh Fullerton Jr.
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Two stars of last year's All American boys baseball game, Bill Pierce and Vic Picetti, are doing quite well in Class "AA" baseball and ten others signed pro contracts. . . . It will be interesting to see what becomes of the kids who starred in last Tuesday's tilt. . . . Curt Simmons, the slender Egypt, Pa., youngster who was picked as the game's standout, looked like a real ballplayer—both on his south-paw pitching and on his hitting when he really picked a 3-2 tie for the game-deciding triple.

DOG QUARANTINE ON IN CITY AS TWO ARE KILLED

Rabid Animal Bites Two People Here; Police Take Action

Every dog seen on the streets of Washington C. H. after a quarantine goes into effect Friday will be shot on sight, Valden Long, chief of police here, warned Thursday.

The quarantine was slapped on after two rabid dogs were killed here Wednesday night and Thursday morning, Long explained. "All dogs have to be in," Long said emphatically as he told of at least two people who had been bit by the rabid dog shot Thursday. The two are Mrs. Byron Butters, Jr., 107 East Elm Street, and Larry Howland, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Howland of 425 West Oak Street.

The Butters' dog, a small black and white female terrier, was termed rabid Thursday morning by Dr. William Bolton, county sanitarian. The dog bit Mrs. Butters on her hand Wednesday night and nipped the child Thursday morning. Butters said the animal also had attacked him late Wednesday night but had not bit him. The dog has been killed.

Police determined that Butters' dog was bit by another rabid dog 12 days ago. Another animal belonging to Chester Brown of South Hinde Street, was killed Wednesday night. That dog had been bit by the same animal which infected the Butters' dog. Dr. Bolton said 12 days was one of the shortest incubation periods for rabies he had ever seen.

Mrs. Butters and little Larry Howland were taken to physicians for treatment, it was said at police headquarters. In order to prevent any more rabid dogs biting people, the quarantine was put into effect by the police with the backing of the doctors in the city, it was explained.

"There are too many dogs loose and somebody may be bit that we don't know about," Long said as he urged dog owners to keep their pets off the streets and penned up. For, he said, the "shoot on sight" order will be carried out to the letter.

The police also recommended inoculation by veterinarians of all dogs which have not been treated already.

The quarantine will help check the spreading rabies, police hope. At least, they are going to make sure no live dogs are roaming the streets while the disease is as prominent as it is now.

NEW HOURS SETTLED FOR RENT OFFICE

It Will Not Be Open on Saturdays Now

The Area Rent Control office here will be closed all day Saturday now, Eugene Smith, rent executive, said today.

The change in hours was made in conformity with the government's new policy of a 40 hour week. The office at 145½ West Court Street (just above the ration board offices) will be open from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M. Monday through Friday.

The Labor Day holiday also will be observed by the rent office, Smith said.

SURVEY OF WCH FOR BUSINESS AREAS PLANNED

Pamphlets To Be Printed With Eye to Attracting New Businesses

A careful survey of Washington C. H. with an eye to locations for possible new businesses will be made before very long.

The survey is sponsored by the Industrial Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the report will be published in a brochure or pamphlet to interest manufacturers in locating here, it was explained.

Mac Dews, Virgil Perrill and O. A. Wike are the committee to make the survey which will include all ground available for industrial development. The entire committee—which includes Howard Wright and Arch O. Riber as well as the three who will make the survey—for publication in the pamphlet.

Besides making the survey, the group discussed segregating manufacturing plants from the residential districts so that all developments and all inconveniences caused by their operation might be concentrated in a given locality.

WILLIAM A. SWISS SUMMONED BY DEATH

Funeral Services Will Be Held Saturday

William Andrew Swiss, 74, farmer, died at his home near Bloomingburg, Wednesday at 1 P. M., having been ill the past week. He formerly resided in and near London.

He is survived by his wife, Emma; five daughters, Mrs. Phemie Stone, Dayton, Mrs. Leota Kelly, Fayette County, Mrs. Sarah Watt, West Liberty, Mrs. Edith Wright, Mansfield, Mrs. Emma Plank, Dayton; two brothers, Samuel Swiss of Columbus and John Swiss of Pemberton.

Funeral services will be held at the Lukens' Funeral Home at London, Saturday at 2 P. M. Burial will be made in Paint Township Cemetery. Rev. John Glenn will be in charge of the services.

Friends may call at the late home until the hour of the services Saturday.

A good way to change the look of an old dress is to change the neckline, or add a crisp jabot.

TRAFFIC RULE CONTEST PLAN DISCUSSED NOW

Chamber of Commerce Hopes To Make City More Safety Conscious

Washington C. H. is going to be safety-conscious.

A "Rule of the Month Contest" is being sponsored by the Traffic and Public Safety Committee of the Chamber of Commerce to help make the people who live here safety-conscious and to familiarize them with the traffic laws of Washington C. H.

The contest will operate this way: a prize will be offered each month to the person submitting a traffic rule judged by the committee as the best of the month. The prize-winning rule will be displayed prominently throughout the downtown district.

At the same meeting, the need for repainting cross walks and pedestrian lanes at intersections was pointed out. And adjustment of the traffic light at Temple and North Streets also was recommended. The committee felt the colors of the light have been changing too rapidly to allow the motorist sufficient time to stop his car.

The need for a motorcycle safety officer to check speeding within the city limits as well as other traffic law violations also was discussed.

The committee is headed by Belford Carpenter and includes Gilbert Crouse, Robert E. Willis, Walter L. Stambaugh and James M. Riffe, Jr., executive vice president of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Here it comes! There it goes." This in brief describes the flight of rocket planes being tested over this community, and a number of persons have seen the planes recently.

Usually the planes fly at high altitude and leave a trail of smoke behind them.

Invariably they are traveling at terrific speed, and roar over a given spot in a few seconds.

The trail of smoke and roar of the exhaust accompany the plane, but most of the time the rocket planes are almost out of sight before the sound is heard.

The planes are being tested from Wright Field, and are being gone over for weak spots as result of two fatal crashes of the fast moving planes recently.

MERCURY REACHES 80 DEGREES WEDNESDAY

Peak temperature here Wednesday was 80 degrees, and after the recent cooler weather, was felt almost as keenly as the 90 degree temperature earlier in the season.

Minimum for day was 60 degrees, and at 8 A. M. Thursday the reading was 70 degrees.

A year ago 80 and 59 were the extremes.

POISON IVY HOW TO KILL IT

Kill the outer skin. It peels off and with it goes the ivy infection. Often one application is enough. Get Teal solution at any drug store. It's powerful. Stops itching quickly. Your 35c back tomorrow if not pleased. Today at Down Town Drug Store.—Adv.

SCOUTS READY FOR MEETING HERE THURSDAY

Troop 182 To Assemble at 8 P. M. for Movies

The Boy Scouts of Troop 182—the only colored troop in the city—are preparing for big doings Thursday at 8 P. M.

The troop will assemble at the Patriotic Club for movies to be shown by Sam Nelson from Columbus. At the same time, the Troop Committee will meet with John Evans conducting it for a business meeting.

Nelson will show "Scout Trails to Good Citizenship", "The Cub in the Home" and "The Life of Dr. George Washington Carver" as the movie fare for the evening.

An investiture service for the new troop is planned, probably some time after school starts this fall. There are ten boys in the troop now and it is hoped the enrollment will be larger later. A second troop for colored youth also may be organized.

Troop 182 is sponsored by the AME Church. John Stepter is scoutmaster now.

BAND PRACTICE SLATED AT HIGH SCHOOL FRIDAY

The first band practice of the year is slated for Friday at 7:30 P. M. at the Little Theater of the high school, it was announced today.

Band members are requested to use the side entrance off Temple Street to enter the building. William B. Clift, band director, will be in charge of the rehearsal.

FUNERAL ON FRIDAY FOR JACOB CALDWELL

Services will be held Friday afternoon at the residence for Jacob Smiley Caldwell, 79, Chillicothe R. 2, who died at his home Wednesday morning following a six months' illness. Mr. Caldwell, breeder of Aberdeen-Angus and Guernsey cattle, was a retired farmer, and had many friends in Fayette County. His widow, three sons and two daughters survive.

Young tender carrots need just enough water to prevent them sticking to the pan while cooking.
